

(a) Contrast variation with density gradient

(b) Isoscattering point positions

Figure 6.2 | a) Scattering curves at different suspending medium electron densities obtained with a solvent density gradient of Caelyx in aqueous iodixanol with constant buffer osmolality. Figure b) shows the precise position of the isoscattering points before and after the proper correction of the background.